

SYNC LICENSING

JULIUS CURCIO

recording as Cookie Rabinowitz

Original soul, funk & hip-hop, cleared and ready for screen.

Julius Curcio writes, performs and produces soul, funk and hip-hop as Cookie Rabinowitz, building songs by hand: voice, guitar, live looping and finger drums. Warm, human music with grit and a point of view, made and owned by one person. Every track is one-stop clearable, so a single yes covers master and publishing. From late-night ballads to anthemic, horn-tinged soul, with real Philadelphia in the bones of it.
